

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear danger to democracy. When news transmutes to poropaganda, and dissenting information is not aired, we come closer to becoming a totalitarian country.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.